Headline:
Mainly dry but becoming largely cloudy today.

Today:
Frosty start for many areas, but also sunny, with any isolated fog patches gradually clearing. Through today most places will become cloudy, while staying dry, with limited sunny intervals. However, isolated showers will continue across Kent and perhaps East Sussex. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Patchy cloud and isolated showers will continue across Kent, possibly reaching East Sussex. Otherwise clear spells with a slight frost developing for many areas, and perhaps some patchy fog. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Sunday:
Chilly start for many places, with frost and any fog clearing. Through the day there will be varying, often large amounts, of cloud but also some sunny spells. Light winds. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday and Tuesday with some bright or sunny spells and light winds, although chance of occasional light rain Tuesday. Wednesday spells of rain and very windy with coastal gales. Milder.
